

News Release

To Ride or Not to Ride....

Hop on board the NM Rail Runner Express for some Shakespeare on the Rail this Summer!

(Albuquerque, NM – May 20, 2010) - Let the theatre come to you this summer onboard the New Mexico Rail Runner Express! Every Saturday in June, July and August the University of New Mexico Department of Theatre Education and Outreach will be performing Shakespeare scenes onboard the train.

“This is something new for us”, says Dewey Cave, Interim Executive Director, Mid-Region Council of Governments. “Other systems around the country have offered similar entertainment, and their passengers have really embraced it”.

Performances will take place only on northbound train #506 and southbound train #509. Each month will feature new Shakespeare scenes. June begins with romance scenes; July will feature comedic scenes while August will showcase scenes of treachery and deceit.

Coming Summer 2010 to the NM Rail Runner

Shakespeare on the Rail

Every SATURDAY in JUNE JULY + AUGUST	North on the 506 & South on the 509	ABQ - SANTA FE SANTA FE - ABQ
---	--	----------------------------------

In collaboration with the NM Rail Runner, UNM Dept of Theatre Ed + Outreach, and the Vortex

NOTE: Performances will always take place on the bottom floor in the first railcar directly behind the locomotive.

”, says .

For more information about Shakespeare on the Rail, visit: <http://nmrailrunner.com/shakespeare.asp>

For more information on the New Mexico Rail Runner Express, visit www.nmrailrunner.com

Contacts: Augusta Meyers, Communications Manager, Mid-Region Council of Governments at (505) 239-8612, ameyers@mrcog-nm.gov

New Mexico Rail Runner Express
(505) 247-1750 — www.nmrailrunner.com

